RELAY RACE IS CALLED OFF BY 'Y' COMMITTEE

The Y. M. C. A. relay race from Schofield to Honolulu, scheduled for New Year's Day, has been called off. At a meeting of the race committee today it was decided that inasmuch as the association had many events planned for New Year's Day it would be best to cancel the race program. Many of the intermediate runners had made good time in the practice runs, and it is expected that the association will stage the relay race at some other time. Although not entered under the colors of the Y. M. C. A., many of the long distance runners, who are members of the association, will take part in the distance runs at Kapiolani park on Sunday afternoon.

An illustrated article by Prof. Vaughan MacCaughy of the College of Hawaii on the subject of "Hawaiian Blow-Holes," appears in a recent number of Scientific American. It describes the blow-holes that occur along the Oahu and Kauai coasts, and tells of their interesting features.

The Nippon Jiji will not publish an edition tomorrow, but the special New Year's edition, which will give an account of the sugar industry, the pineapple and coffee industries and other features, will be issued on Saturday morning. The edition will contain 28 pages of descriptive matter on Hawaiian social and business life.

The bond of the American schooner Halcyon for its appeal of the libel suit brought against it by the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company, was fixed at $500 by Federal Judge C. F. Clements today. The libellant's bill of costs was approved as submitted. In a decision on the case, Judge Sanford B. Dole found for the company.

MORNING ON 'CHANGE

A livelier tendency was manifested on 'change this morning, with trading heavier than earlier in the week, and prices fractionally stronger at many points. Oiaa has rebounded to 9 5-8. McBryde to 8 3-4 and Ewa to $27 while Hawaiian Commercial stands at $43.50. Honolulu Brewing has struck skids, and sold at $17.50. San Carlos was active, between boards, at $9. The first sale of Honomu since the stock was at $130 was made today at $175. Heretofore bids and offerings have been widely apart, bids standing around $150 and asked prices at around $200.

H. A. C. CLUB PUTS LIMIT OF 25 TO MEMBERSHIP

Members of the H. A. C. Club met last evening at the Y. M. C. A. for their weekly dinner, and plans were formed for social and athletic work for the coming year. It was decided at the meeting to limit the present membership to 25, and Leon Ebersole and Gordon Wakefield will be appointed a committee on membership for the late coming year. Ronald Higgins and Werper Smith were appointed members of the athletic committee.

A ladies' bowling tournament will be held at the Y. M. C. A. some time next month, and the H. A. C. members are at present arranging details for the competition.

NO WIRELESS MESSAGES HEARD YET FROM TAHITI

Although the Mutual's wireless plant has been listening every night for signals from the new French station at Tahiti, nothing has been heard as yet. The station is expected to be in-service by January 1. Regular messages from Honolulu to Tahiti will be handled by the Mutual Wireless, a Marconi plant. The Federal will not handle any of the Tahiti business.
